Hand by Hand 2010, Slatina

8/8/2010- 22/08/2010

10+10 vols DISA

Local youth organization Krik organizes voluntary and cultural activities promoting active youth participation.

W: The main aim of the work camp is to socialize with disabled people through participation in art workshops spending our time together after and before workshops and to connect people with different possibilities and develop mutual respect and tolerance. At the end of the work camp an exhibition with our works will be organized. First weekend we will participate in ecological workshop and help with marking and repairing hiking trek near Slatina.

S: Open discussion about disability policies in other countries. Volunteers are invited to bring information about it in their own countries.

A: NGO centre with all facilities available. Volunteers will sleep all together in one room, mattresses are provided, but we suggest you to bring sleeping bags. We will cook and clean for ourselves. Do not forget to bring nice recipes and maybe unique spices from your home country.

T: Slatina

X: motivation letter and police check required. Not accessible to wheelchairs.
