General information about our projects in Germany:

The group: will be international.

Duration: two weeks.

The work: around 20-25 hours per week. Usually there is no work on weekends.

Accommodation: normally in houses with all facilities, including beds, sleeping-rooms, kitchen, shower toilets.

Food: volunteers cook according to their wishes. They get a budget for shopping, by daily changing kitchen-teams.

Camp leaders: 1 or 2 coordinators per camp help to organise daily life, free time, excursions and so on.

Camp language: German only in all language-camps. English in the other projects.

Extra-fee: 160 EUR for language-camps.

Insurance: provided (illness, accident, third liability) for the period of the projects. European volunteers have to bring their European Health Card. The insurance does not cover travel to and from the camp.

Info sheet: will be sent to partner organisation approx. 4 weeks before the start of the project and will include all travel information. Special Questionnaire for help preparing language will be sent approx. 10 days before the project to volunteers directly, by email.

Who can take part to our camps?

Our camps are open to volunteers from 16 (some camps 18; remarked in each project-description) to 26 years old. Exceptions for older participants are possible.

Different conditions are eventually specified below in the descriptions of the single projects.

Volunteers taking part to projects in German language ("Sprachcamps"-) must absolutely be willing to use only German and no other language all along the project.

Language: German exclusively

Project: Host organisation is the municipality of Marburg, holiday-camp "Freizeitgelaende Stadtwald". They have already been organising international voluntary language-workcamps for many years.

It is a workcamp including German language training. Volunteers will be speaking exclusively German during the whole camp. In the 2 weeks they will get all in all 18 hours of German-language training. Our teachers are partly trained teachers, partly students. The camp includes an interactive 18-hour German language training, based on the needs and requests of the participants in order to improve their already existent language skills.

Work: Participants will be doing various manual works to prepare the area for leisure activities of several groups of citizens coming from Marburg. For example, clearing the place, gardening, painting, building up/taking down tents. Working-time will not exceed 4-5 hours daily, anyway excluding Saturday and Sunday.

Accommodation: In a house with bedrooms, kitchen, toilets, shower. Cooking, cleaning, shopping, and all daily tasks will be done by the group itself. Like in each workcamp, accommodation, food and travel-costs for group excursions are free as well as pedagogical materials.

Location: The camp is located on a wooded-hill named "Stadtwald", in a holiday-camp more than 5 km far from the city centre. A bus-connection allows to go to downtown. Marburg is a historical, picturesque university town, 100 km north of Frankfurt am Main. Among the ca. 82.000 inhabitants, 25.000 or more are students from all over the world. Terminal: Train-station Marburg-Lahn (meeting-point); next airport Frankfurt/Main or Frankfurt-Hahn.

Special requirements: The project is not conceived for absolute beginners. Participants must be already able to communicate in German at least for daily needs. They also must be willing to communicate with each other only in German all along the camp and not only during the lessons.

Extra-fee of 160€ to be paid upon arrival. A certificate for participating in a project with language-course will be given at the end of the camp.

Age: 16-26 (exceptions for older participants are possible).

Language: German exclusively

Project: Host organization is a 70 years old environmental organization: "Nature Friends" of Marburg. They have already been organizing international workcamps for many years. The camp includes an interactive 18-hour German language training, based on the needs and requests of the participants in order to improve their already existent language skills. Volunteers will be also involved in daily actions (simulations, role plays, seminars, discussions...) on the topic "culture of peace", in cooperation with the BIPPI initiative (www.bippi.net).

Work: Main work will be in the forest, as maintenance of the area where the site of the Nature Friends is located, or in the house itself. Participants will be doing various manual works to prepare the area and the house for leisure activities of groups coming from the city. Time of work will be 5-6 hours daily, excluding Saturday and Sunday.

Accommodation: Participants will live in a house with several bed-rooms, kitchen, bathroom, showers. Cooking, cleaning, shopping etc. will be done by the group itself. Like in each workcamp, accommodation, food and travel-costs for group excursions are free as well as pedagogical materials.

Location: The camp is located on a wooded-hill less than 3 km from the city centre. Marburg is an historical, picturesque university town, 100 km north of Frankfurt am Main. Among the ca. 82.000 inhabitants, 25.000 or more are students from all over the world.
